NO. 99-3-04213-1

DECLARATION FOR WRIT OF
HEBEAS CORPUS, FOR EX PARTE
RESTRAINING ORDER AND FOR
ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE (MTAF)

THE UNDERSIGNED declares under penalty of perjury of the State of Washington that the following is true and correct.

I am the respondent in this case, over the age of 18 and competent to be a witness in this action.

My ex-wife has taken my children and moved them to a secret location. I am asking for a Writ of Habeas Corpus, or alternatively for at least a show cause order, but I am fearful that if I somehow manage to find and serve my ex-wife with a show cause, I will never see her or the children again.

On Friday, August 31, 2001 my children were seized by the Bellingham Police Department pursuant to a Writ of Habeas Corpus issued by this court on June 22, 2000.

A hearing was held on September 4, 2001 at which I appeared pro se. (I have since found a lawyer to take this case without charge to me.)

At the hearing, the children were turned over to my wife.

The court turned the children over to my wife because of 1) a default divorce decree and parenting plan and/or 2) (according to the Petition for Writ of Habeas) an ex-parte order granting custody entered on 6/21/00.

Immediately following the September 4th hearing, my wife vanished. I believe she thinks she is authorized to do this because of an order entered on 1/10/01 waiving the statutory requirements for relocation. The court should know that order was entered ex-parte. It was also entered eight months before my wife ever had custody of the children (which happened only on September 4th).

The order permitting relocation was based on claims that "[I have] domestic violence charges on [my] record." And that I "abducted" the children on March 27, 2000.

DECLARATION FOR EX PARTE RESTRAINING ORDER
ETC..

In fact, my only domestic violence record pertains to cause No. 00-2-00459-7, a case filed by my ex-wife and dismissed on March 6, 2000 when she failed to appear. There is also cause No. 00-2-00701-4 which was entered after service supposedly on me at 7419 South Alaska Street. But, I have never lived there. That address is occupied by Anthony Muhammed, a very good friend of ours, whom Mildred and I met through our church.

I cannot explain what happened as to service. Officer Brame who supposedly served the protection order and previously the notice and hearing is no longer a Tacoma Police Department employee, so I can't track him down to know what happened. I suspect Mildred gave him Anthony's address, and he probably served someone there, but not me.

Other than the ex-parte orders for protection and the protection order entered after supposedly serving someone at Anthony's, I have no domestic violence record.

Anyway, the domestic violence record is not pertinent to much of anything except that - using it - Mildred got the order permitting her to leave without notice to me. And, as I say, she's just vanished.

As to "abducting" the children on March 27th, that's absurd. I have parented the children with Mildred's consent while the police - unbeknown. And, on March 20th, she supposedly "served" me with the protection order, so she supposedly knew how to get notice to me.

In fact - although the divorce action was filed by Mildred in December of '99, we were still living together until end of February '00. At that time, she said she wanted me out of the house. I went to our mutual friend's home (Robert Holmes) at 772 115th Street So, Tacoma 98444. I was coming by the house regularly to see the children. She would call me sometimes, I would call her, and I thought we were just working out marital difficulties. I'm not sure why she didn't have me served with the divorce papers during all this time.

In February, I confronted Mildred about an affair, there was a big blow-up discussion about a number of things. She wanted to be relieved of a lot of responsibility and consented to my parenting the children. I took the children to Antigua at the end of March with her consent. I went to live with Jeanette Killman (whose cousin Randy lives here), but four months later, I got a place of our own. And, I admit that communication broke down but that's because Mildred vanished from her home, left no way to contact her, stopped talking to our friends. She did, however, call me four or five times in Antigua.

In late June 2000 I returned with the children to Tacoma and stayed with Walter Francis, a friend who owns a home in Lacy because Antigua seemed pretty backward - no internet or other technological advances. Anyway, we ended up in Bellingham, where I was living when the children were seized from Parkview Elementary where I'd registered them and where they were attending school.

That's where the children were seized pursuant to the Writ of Habeas.

As to the September 4th order giving Mildred custody of the children. The court should know that:

ETC..*

The parenting plan obtained by default says that I parent the children every other weekend, which isn't happening because Mildred has vanished with the children.

The entire default is bogus for these reasons:

First, as I say, Mildred and I lived together for at least two months after the case was filed, and I could easily have been served.

She claims that she served me on 3-20-00 with the protection order (00-2-00701-4), Yet, on 3-17-00, Roger Ward claims that he could not locate me. Still, when Mr. Ward issued his claim that he felt I was avoiding service, Mildred did not ask for an order permitting service by publication.

Almost certainly, that's because in mid-March, she couldn't be sure I would not see the publication.

She only sought an order permitting service by publication in mid-May, by which time she knew I was in Antigua.

Then, on May 12th - using Roger Ward's declaration - she sought and obtained an order for service by publication. She didn't inform the court that three days after Roger said I couldn't be found, she supposedly perfected service of the protection order. Mildred could not have obtained the order permitting service by publication based on Mr. Ward's assertion as of 3-17-00 (that I was unavailable) if she had also informed the court that Officer Brame had served me on 3-20-00.

Anyway, based on partial information and mis-information, Mildred obtained an order to serve by publication. She then published in The Northwest Dispatch, a virtually unknown publication (because publishing in something like The News Tribune might have been noticed by one of our friends).

Then in October of 2000 she got the default.

Meanwhile, the Habeas Writ was still pending, sitting around after being issued on June 22, 2000.

It seems important for the court to know that Mildred obtained that writ by alleging "I have been awarded custody on 6/21/00." In fact, she did get an ex-parte order granting her custody on 6/21. She did not, at the same time, seek the Writ, because quite obviously it wouldn't have been issued right away. So, she came back one day later, and based on the ex-parte custody order, obtained the writ.

The ex-parte order contained a show cause order and a return date for hearing July 10th. There being no proof of service, nor even any proof of an attempted service, the hearing was stricken.

Thus, Mildred obtained an ex-parte order granting custody (erroneously since it altered the status quo), used that ex-parte order to obtain the writ, then didn't bother to attempt service or to show at the show cause hearing.

ETC..

Sadly, the children were turned over to Mildred on September 4th, based on the bogus default parenting plan, and the old Writ issued prior to the decree. Now she's vanished.

Based on all this, I want the court to 1) issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus so that the children can be picked-up if they are ever found; 2) an order restraining ANYONE from taking the children out of Washington; 3) an order to show cause why the children should not be placed primarily with me for parenting pending further proceedings, and to show cause why the default decree should not be vacated.

A couple of other things seem important.

First, up until the end of March, 2001, I was easily reachable by Mildred. I owned and operated a business called "Express Car/Truck Mechanic, Inc. My business card is attached. All Mildred need to do to have me served was to have a process server call my business and ask for me to come out for a car repair. I would have shown up at the process server's place of business.

Second, maybe it's not horribly important, but on June 27, 2000, Mildred filed a motion and order to proceed in forma pauperis. Since she'd already paid the filing fee, I guess that relates to excusing her paying the fee for obtaining the Writ of Habeas. In all events, the court should observe that in the divorce decree, she was awarded a 300 ZX and a Jaguar, and her business "Reality Enterprises," so it does not appear she was honest on June 27th about her financial status.

Since the court issued the last Order to Show Cause, I have been unable to locate Mildred. I now have a professional Private Investigator skip tracing her. In order to facilitate process service, I am asking the court to reissue the same basic order with an extended return date

DATED at Tacoma, Washington this 12th day of October.

House hold duties were going ^{sporadically} unattended, Business relationship with customers began to wane, leaving both secretarial and mechanical duties to John.

As the marriage ties ~~begin~~ ^{continued} to unravel ~~Mildred~~ Mildred stopped doing the secretarial duties at Express/Car Truck. Her record keeping at the Mosque also began to get behind. Titen she got a restraining but they were still in contact either at home business or Mosque meetings. When it came to her claim that she was unable to serve John with divorce papers is inaccurate. As stated above she could have served BROTHIER at any one of those places. She could have contacted me to serve them or ~~at~~ the staff at the Mosque or even called as if she was a perspective client or established client of Express/Car to set an appointment for service and then serve John as necessary. ~~THAT~~ this helps brings justice and closure to this unfortunate circumstances for all involved.

NO. 99-3-04213-1

DECLARATION FOR WRIT OF
HEBEAS CORPUS, FOR EX PARTE
RESTRAINING ORDER AND FOR
ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

(MTAF)

THE UNDERSIGNED declares under penalty of perjury of the State of Washington that the following is true and correct.

I am the respondent in this case, over the age of 18 and competent to be a witness in this action.

My ex-wife has taken my children and moved them to a secret location. I am asking for a Writ of Habeas Corpus, or alternatively for at least a show cause order, but I am fearful that if I somehow manage to find and serve my ex-wife with a show cause, I will never see her or the children again.

On Friday, August 31, 2001 my children were seized by the Bellingham Police Department pursuant to a Writ of Habeas Corpus issued by this court on June 22, 2000.

A hearing was held on September 4, 2001 at which I appeared pro se. (I have since found a lawyer to take this case without charge to me.)

At the hearing, the children were turned over to my wife.

The court turned the children over to my wife because of 1) a default divorce decree and parenting plan and/or 2) (according to the Petition for Writ of Habeas) an ex-parte order granting custody entered on 6/21/00.

Immediately following the September 4th hearing, my wife vanished. I believe she thinks she is authorized to do this because of an order entered on 1/10/01 waiving the statutory requirements for relocation. The court should know that order was entered ex-parte. It was also entered eight months before my wife ever had custody of the children (which happened only on September 4th).

ETC..

The parenting plan obtained by default says that I parent the children every other weekend, which isn't happening because Mildred has vanished with the children.

The entire default is bogus for these reasons:

First, as I say, Mildred and I lived together for at least two months after the case was filed, and I could easily have been served.

She claims that she served me on 3-20-00 with the protection order (00-2-00701-4), Yet, on 3-17-00, Roger Ward claims that he could not locate me. Still, when Mr. Ward issued his claim that he felt I was avoiding service, Mildred did not ask for an order permitting service by publication.

Almost certainly, that's because in mid-March, she couldn't be sure I would not see the publication.

She only sought an order permitting service by publication in mid-May, by which time she knew I was in Antigua.

Then, on May 12th - using Roger Ward's declaration - she sought and obtained an order for service by publication. She didn't inform the court that three days after Roger said I couldn't be found, she supposedly perfected service of the protection order. Mildred could not have obtained the order permitting service by publication based on Mr. Ward's assertion as of 3-17-00 (that I was unavailable) if she had also informed the court that Officer Brame had served me on 3-20-00.

Anyway, based on partial information and mis-information, Mildred obtained an order to serve by publication. She then published in The Northwest Dispatch, a virtually unknown publication (because publishing in something like The News Tribune might have been noticed by one of our friends).

Then in October of 2000 she got the default.

Meanwhile, the Habeas Writ was still pending, sitting around after being issued on June 22, 2000.

It seems important for the court to know that Mildred obtained that writ by alleging "I have been awarded custody on 6/21/00." In fact, she did get an ex-parte order granting her custody on 6/21. She did not, at the same time, seek the Writ, because quite obviously it wouldn't have been issued right away. So, she came back one day later, and based on the ex-parte custody order, obtained the writ.

The ex-parte order contained a show cause order and a return date for hearing July 10th. There being no proof of service, nor even any proof of an attempted service, the hearing was stricken.

Thus, Mildred obtained an ex-parte order granting custody (erroneously since it altered the status quo), used that ex-parte order to obtain the writ, then didn't bother to attempt service or to show at the show cause hearing.

Sadly, the children were turned over to Mildred on September 4th, based on the bogus default parenting plan, and the old Writ issued prior to the decree. Now she's vanished.

DECLARATION FOR EX PARTE RESTRAINING ORDER
ETC..

The order permitting relocation was based on claims that "[I have] domestic violence charges on [my] record." And that I "abducted" the children on March 27, 2000.

In fact, my only domestic violence record pertains to cause No. 00-2-00459-7, a case filed by my ex-wife and dismissed on March 6, 2000 when she failed to appear. There is also cause No. 00-2-00701-4 which was entered after service supposedly on me at 7419 South Alaska Street. But, I have never lived there. That address is occupied by Anthony Muhammed, a very good friend of ours, whom Mildred and I met through our church.

I cannot explain what happened as to service. Officer Brame who supposedly served the protection order and previously the notice and hearing is no longer a Tacoma Police Department employee, so I can't track him down to know what happened. I suspect Mildred gave him Anthony's address, and he probably served someone there, but not me.

Other than the ex-parte orders for protection and the protection order entered after supposedly serving someone at Anthony's, I have no domestic violence record.

Anyway, the domestic violence record is not pertinent to much of anything except that - using it - Mildred got the order permitting her to leave without notice to me. And, as I say, she's just vanished.

As to "abducting" the children on March 27th, that's absurd. I have parented the children with Mildred's consent while the police - unbeknown. And, on March 20th, she supposedly "served" me with the protection order, so she supposedly knew how to get notice to me.

In fact - although the divorce action was filed by Mildred in December of '99, we were still living together until end of February '00. At that time, she said she wanted me out of the house. I went to our mutual friend's home (Robert Holmes) at 772 115th Street So, Tacoma 98444.. I was coming by the house regularly to see the children. She would call me sometimes, I would call her, and I thought we were just working out marital difficulties. I'm not sure why she didn't have me served with the divorce papers during all this time.

In February, I confronted Mildred about an affair, there was a big blow-up discussion about a number of things. She wanted to be relieved of a lot of responsibility and consented to my parenting the children. I took the children to Antigua at the end of March with her consent. I went to live with Jeanette Killman (whose cousin Randy lives here), but four months later, I got a place of our own. And, I admit that communication broke down but that's because Mildred vanished from her home, left no way to contact her, stopped talking to our friends. She did, however, call me four or five times in Antigua.

In late June 2000 I returned with the children to Tacoma and stayed with Walter Francis, a friend who owns a home in Lacy because Antigua seemed pretty backward - no internet or other technological advances. Anyway, we ended up in Bellingham, where I was living when the children were seized from Parkview Elementary where I'd registered them and where they were attending school.

That's where the children were seized pursuant to the Writ of Habeas.

As to the September 4th order giving Mildred custody of the children. The court should know that:

Based on all this, I want the court to 1) issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus so that the children can be picked-up if they are ever found; 2) an order restraining ANYONE from taking the children out of Washington; 3) an order to show cause why the children should not be placed primarily with me for parenting pending further proceedings, and to show cause why the default decree should not be vacated.

A couple of other things seem important.

First, up until the end of March, 2001, I was easily reachable by Mildred. I owned and operated a business called "Express Car/Truck Mechanic, Inc. My business card is attached. All Mildred need to do to have me served was to have a process server call my business and ask for me to come out for a car repair. I would have shown up at the process server's place of business.

Second, maybe it's not horribly important, but on June 27, 2000, Mildred filed a motion and order to proceed in forma pauperis. Since she'd already paid the filing fee, I guess that relates to excusing her paying the fee for obtaining the Writ of Habeas. In all events, the court should observe that in the divorce decree, she was awarded a 300 ZX and a Jaguar, and her business "Reality Enterprises," so it does not appear she was honest on June 27th about her financial status.

DATED at Tacoma, Washington this 21st day of September.

3.13 OTHER:3.14 SUMMARY OF Ch. 21 Laws 2000 §§5 - 10, REGARDING RELOCATION OF A CHILD:

This is a summary only. For the full text, please see Ch. 21 Laws 2000.

If the person with whom the child resides a majority of the time plans to move, that person shall give notice to every person entitled to court ordered time with the child.

If the move is outside the child's school district, the relocating person must give notice by personal service or by mail requiring a return receipt. This notice must be at least 60 days before the intended move. If the relocating person could not have known about the move in time to give 60 days' notice, that person must give notice within 5 days after learning of the move. The notice must contain the information required in Ch. 21 Laws 2000 § 6. See also form DR 07.0500 (Notice of Intended Relocation of A Child.)

If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person must provide actual notice by any reasonable means. A person entitled to time with the child may not object to the move but may ask for modification under RCW 26.09.260.

Notice may be delayed for 21 days if the relocating person is entering a domestic violence shelter or is moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to health and safety.

If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.

A relocating person may ask the court to waive any notice requirements that may put the health and safety of a person or a child at risk.

Failure to give the required notice may be grounds for sanctions, including contempt.

If no objection is filed within 30 days after service of the notice of intended relocation, the relocation will be permitted and the proposed revised residential schedule may be confirmed.

002102 .3599

A person entitled to time with a child under a court order can file an objection to the child's relocation whether or not he or she received proper notice.

An objection may be filed by using the mandatory pattern form WPF DR 07.0700, (Objection to Relocation/Motion for Modification of Custody Decree/parenting Plan/Residential Schedule (Relocation)). The objection must be served on all persons entitled to time with the child.

The relocating person shall not move the child during the time for objection unless: (a) the delayed notice provisions apply; or (b) a court order allows the move.

If the objecting person schedules a hearing for a date within 15 days of timely service of the objection, the relocating person shall not move the child before the hearing unless there is a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to the health or safety of a person or a child.

IV. DECISION MAKING

4.1 DAY-TO-DAY DECISIONS.

Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of each child while the child is residing with that parent. Regardless of the allocation of decision making in this parenting plan, either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children.

4.2 MAJOR DECISIONS.

Major decisions regarding each child shall be made as follows:

☒ Sole decision making shall be ordered to the ☒ mother
☐ father for the following reasons:

- ☐ A limitation on the other parent's decision making authority is mandated by RCW 26.09.191 (See paragraph 2.1).
☐ Both parents are opposed to mutual decision making.

002102 - 3600

One parent is opposed to mutual decision making, and such opposition is reasonably based on the following criteria:

- (a) The existence of a limitation under RCW 26.09.191;
 - (b) The history of participation of each parent in decision making in each of the areas in RCW 26.09.184(4)(a);
 - (c) Whether the parents have demonstrated ability and desire to cooperate with one another in decision making in each of the areas in RCW 26.09.184(4)(a); and
 - (d) The parents' geographic proximity to one another, to the extent that it affects their ability to make timely mutual decisions.
- ☐ There are limiting factors in paragraph 2.2, but there are no restrictions on mutual decision making for the following reasons:

V. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- ☐ Disputes between the parties, other than child support disputes, shall be submitted to (list person or agency):

- ☐ mediation by _____, or
- ☐ arbitration by _____.

- ☐ _____% mother _____% father.
- ☐ based on each party's proportional share of income from line 6 of the child support worksheets.
- ☐ as determined in the dispute resolution process.
- The counseling, mediation or arbitration process shall be commenced by notifying the other party by ☐ written request ☐ certified mail ☐ other:

In the dispute resolution process:

- (a) Preference shall be given to carrying out this Parenting Plan.
- (b) Unless an emergency exists, the parents shall use the designated process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the plan, except those related to financial support.
- (c) A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling or mediation and of each arbitration award and shall be provided to each party.

002102 . 3601

- (d) If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court shall award attorneys' fees and financial sanctions to the other parent.
- (e) The parties have the right of review from the dispute resolution process to the superior court.
- ☐ No dispute resolution process, except court action, shall be ordered, because ☐ a limiting factor under RCW 26.09.191 applies or ☐ one parent is unable to afford the cost of the proposed dispute resolution process.

VI. OTHER PROVISIONS

- ☐ There are no other provisions.
- ☒ There are the following other provisions:

I am requesting that sole custody of the children is with me and that John Allen Williams, their father, will be allowed no visitation based on prior actions of domestic violence and abduction of children. An order warning notice of requirements for relocation of children was awarded to me on Jan. 10, 2001. In the previous parenting plan, he was awarded visitation. I am requesting that to change to no visitation.

VII. DECLARATION FOR PROPOSED PARENTING PLAN

- ☐ Does not apply.
- ☐ (Only sign if this is a proposed parenting plan.) I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that this plan has been proposed in good faith and that the statements in Part II of this Plan are true and correct.

20 [] Child support actually paid or received for other children from other relationships;

22 [] Gifts;

[] Prizes;

24 [] Possession of wealth;

26 Starting Date: Day of Final Decree.
28 Day(s) of the month support is due: First day of every month.

30 3.10 INCREMENTAL PAYMENTS.

34 [] This is a modification of child support. Pursuant to RCW
36 26.09.170 (8)(a) and (c), the obligation has been modified by 38 more than thirty percent and the change would cause
40 significant hardship. The increase in the child support
42 obligation set forth in Paragraph 3.4 shall be implemented in 44 two equal increments, one at the time of this order and the second on _, six months from the entry of this order.

with the patient at 1130 5/16/00 by telephone (TPD was notified of the restraining order violation). When she only wanted to find her children, the suspect ended the conversation. He then called her mother. When he did that is when he made threats. Upon interviewing the patient, MILLER learned the suspect is a light skinned black man, DOB 12/31/60, 6'1", 185lbs, medium build (very muscular), clean shaven, and "very charming." It was also learned the suspect owned no weapons, but has access to them. He also has served in the US Army as a Demolitions/Weapons expert for 15 years and "can make a weapon out of anything." It was also stated he is skilled in hand to hand fighting. The patient was placed on the "Do not announce" list with the hospital operator, and her room phone was blocked from incoming calls. She was then moved to room 633. She stated the suspect also has a history of wearing a military uniform with a different name than his on it. Shortly after clearing from 6J, security was dispatched stat to 6J regarding a man with a similar description asking for the patient. Upon arrival it was learned, by ID check, it was not the suspect but a friend of the patients who was allowed to be there (Stanley). The nursing staff has asked security to remain alerted to the possibility of the suspects arrival. Before officers cleared the patient stated she believed the suspect has the ability and the drive to try to make good on his threats.

16 I DECLARE THAT:

17 I have been unsuccessful in having 18 John A. Williams served the divorce/parenting plan
19 papers. I have a statement from the sheriff's office
20 supporting that John was dodging the sheriff.

21 On March 10, 2000, John began keeping the 22 children, John Jr 10, Salina 8 and Isalibah 7, for 23 weekend visitation. Prior to that date, we had set up that 24 he would let me know when he wanted to see them, pick 25 them up from school, etc. The times he requested to see
26 the children were never denied. He always had access
27 and I never discouraged the children from seeing 28 their dad. Neither did I speak badly of him to them.

DECLARATION - Page 1

1 On March 17th, the landlord called about the rent
 2 which had not been paid. It is paid by the 10th of 3 each month. I called John and told him. He called the 4 landlord and said he was no longer responsible for the 5 rent. The landlord called me and told me what John
 6 said. I was not working at the time and had no monies
 7 except what John thought I should have which was nothing.
 8 We had a business together, however he closed it on 12/28/99
 9 and told me not to worry, he would take care of things.
 10 On March 24th, the children's weekend with him began.
 11 He was suppose to stay w/ Robert Holmes but I found 12 out later, he didn't. He w I called him Sunday and 13 asked what time would he be bringing the children home.
 14 He said he wanted to take them to school the next day
 15 I said okay. He took them to school Monday. My son
 16 became sick and he came home. My daughter, Salena, 17 became sick too. I called John to pick her up because 18 I didn't want to leave Lil John. He said okay. He 19 called back and said he had both girls and he wanted
 20 to pick up Lil John @ 3:30 so they could go shopping
 21 for summer clothes and to Odyssey One. I said fine as 22 long as they were back @ 5:30 because that is their 23 grandma's birthday party. He said no problem. 5:30
 24 came and they were not there. I paged him
 25 continuously. He called at 7:30. I spoke with the 26 children. They were at Kmart buying clothes. I 27 told them to ask their dad when would they be 28

Coming home. They said after they leave their. I said okay. About a 1/2 hour later, I began paging him continuously again. He called at 11:25pm and said they were stuck in Seattle, but they were enroute. I said okay. That was the last time I had heard from him to this date. He took all monies from the children's accounts which totalled $521.00. I later found out he borrowed $1,100.00 from his business partner. He left me completely penniless. My mom lives with me and she's 73 and not in good health. My daughter Jaalibah is her reason for living these days. We have heard nothing. We live moment by moment.
 I do not know where he is. Please allow me to do a public notice.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.
